DETAILED ACTION

Since the scope of the claims have not been changed, the previous office action has been incorporated by reference and is not being reiterated in the instant action. All the claims rejected in the previous office action under the appropriate statutes apply to the instant application.

Response to Arguments

Applicant argues, the claims 22 and 24 comply with the enablement requirement and have supported their argument by citing relevant portions of the specification.

The support provided is not clear as to how generating the second sensitive area can take place without the permission level associated with the customer ID. The Examiner requests further clarification/explanation as to how the claims comply with the enablement requirement.

Applicant argues broadwin fails to teach "a composite of the primary and secondary images". Applicants further argue "Thus it is inaccurate to conclude, per the office action, that a first video signal corresponds to an interactive application content (Office Action, p.3). The second video signal is patentably distinct from the interactive application content.

The Examiner respectfully disagrees. Broadwin discloses the primary and secondary images are multiplexed which forms a composite signal of primary and secondary images. As a result, the Applicant's arguments are not persuasive.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
